English

This week in English we will be...

Lesson 1

The Tsunami

Imagine you are in one of the cars, write down as many adjectives as you can to describe your feelings and what you can see and hear!

Lesson 2

Use your adjectives from yesterday to write sentences with a subordinate clause to explain what is happening.

EG: The terrifying waves made a magnificent wall, as we trembled in our cars.

Lesson 3

Use the internet to watch a report, go to Google and type in Newsround Floods: 'I was completely cut off'.

Imagine you are a news reporter in one of the cars, write down some ideas of what you might say.

Lesson 4

You have been asked to report on the tsunami, you are sat in one of the cars and reporting live!

Use all you have done so far this week to write a script.

Lesson 5

Record your news report! Use your script and ask someone in your house to record as you report live on the tsunami!

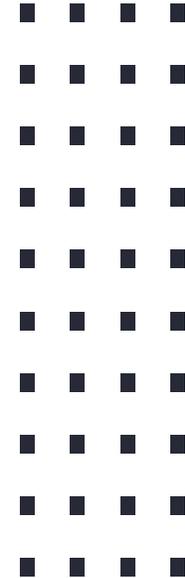

Why not post these to our Twitter page so we can see!

Curriculum

This week in curriculum we will be...

Lesson 1 – Art

Search your garden for natural or manmade objects.
Create a piece of artwork using the objects then think of a title for it.

Lesson 2 – PSHE

Think about the current situation, pick a friend from your class and write them a letter to say what you miss about them. Make sure you save the letter as I am sure they would love to read it when we are back in school. We could make some time in a PSHE lesson to swap letters!

You could write about...

What you miss doing with them.

What you miss about talking to them.

What you are looking forward to when you see them again.

What you have been doing that you would like them to know about.

How you are feeling at the moment.
