A Message from Miss Pitts

This week we have been celebrating reading across the school as it was World Book Day yesterday! Thank you for your support in sending your child to school dressed up either as an animal to link to our focus text or as their favourite character from a book. The pupils looked fantastic and all enjoyed taking part in activities based on The Pet by Catherine Emmett! Today some pupils have even been lucky enough to meet Catherine and take part in a question and answer session with her.

Next week we are holding Parents Evenings on Tuesday 7th and Wednesday 8th March 2023. This is a great opportunity to come and talk to your child's class teacher on a 1:1 basis to find out how they are doing in school. We look forward to welcoming you into school next week for these meetings.

Miss Pitts,
Head of School

Parking outside school

Thank you to those parents who park considerately on Barham Road and Griffin Road when dropping off and picking up their children.

Please can I remind parents that the yellow lines outside of school are to be kept clear of cars and should not be used for parking.

There has been an increase in cars parking on these and blocking the crossing points near the school gates. The yellow lines are there for the safety of all pupils and parents, so we appreciate your support in not parking on them.

We are continuing our efforts to try and improve road safety outside of school by pushing the council to add a crossing patrol and a 20mph zone outside of the school on Barham Road.

Reading Corner

We've celebrated reading in so many ways this week!

On Wednesday, 8 Year 6 children visited the Freedom Centre library to meet Little Horror author Daniel Peak.

On Thursday, we all celebrated World Book Day and did lots of fun activities based on The Pet by Catherine Emmett.

On Friday, Catherine Emmett herself visited EYFS, Y1, Y2 and Y3. All children took part in virtual author visits from The Children's Bookshow.

What a great reading week!
