The Lipstick By Maria Karipidou	I Am Calm By Roger Priddy	Wow! Said the Owl By Tim Hopgood	A stroll through the seasons By Kay Barnham

Seas Exploring his mother's dressing table, a little boy discovers THE LIPSTICK. It begins on his lips, where it looks very good – MWAH! But then it goes for a little walk ... squiggle, squiggle ... on the mirror ... scribble scribble ... on the shiny floorboards ... smudge smudge . And even on the fluffy cat. Uh-oh! What will happen when Mum, Dad and big sister sees all this mess?	Encourage young children to find inner peace and happiness in fun and practical ways. From calming yoga sequences, mindful meditation, and encouraging thankful thoughts, this board book introduces toddlers to the tools they need to self-soothe. Filled with phrases that build self-esteem, gentle text and beautiful illustrations, young children will love every turn of the page.	At night, when we are feeling tired and ready for bed, owls are just waking up. But one curious little owl decides to stay awake all day, instead of all night, and discovers a world bursting with colour! Yet when the night-time comes around again, the stars above her head are still the most beautiful of all.	This book discovers the seasons, from bright spring blossoms to sparkling winter snow, and everything in between. This book will help children answer questions about the world around them and discover many amazing and wonderful scientific facts about nature. .

Poles Apart By Jeanne Willis	My First Arctic Encyclopaedia By Simon Holland	The Treasure of Pirate Frank By Elspeth Graham	The Big Picture Atlas By Emily Bone

In this story, children will learn that penguins belong in the South Pole not the North! The children will join the penguins on their picnic adventure around the world, looking at different countries and their differences, as they make their way back from the North Pole. All because of daddy penguin's poor map reading skills!	Children will be able to explore Arctic animals, their habitats, how they are adapted to live in such weather and their diets. From huge hungry polar bears to powerful orca whales, the children will be able to discover all about these fascinating creatures.	When we think of pirates, we assume they are boys but through this story the children will follow the map and clues to hunt down the treasure, only to find out that Pirate Frank is a girl...anyone can be a pirate after all. The children will learn about pirate maps and how X marks the spot. The children will learn about treasure and what treasure is to them.	This formative first Atlas book will allow children to learn about the world. It includes 15 illustrated maps of different countries and has beautiful illustrations of native animals and people. It will allow children to learn fascinating facts about the countries and be able to compare their 'own world' to others.
