A Message from Miss Pitts

Earlier today we celebrated 100% attendance of pupils for this half term. I have been really pleased to see how the number of pupils receiving this each half term continues to grow. I hope this will be the case again at the end of the Summer Term, and I am also looking forward to giving out certificates to pupils who have achieved 100% for the full school year.

As some of you may have seen in the media, the guidance around attendance is changing from the 19th August 2024, which could increase the number of fines issued. I will share these updates with you all after half term.

Half term starts at the end of today. I hope you all have a relaxing and enjoyable week. School re-opens on Monday 3rd June 2024.

Sporting results

Thank you to all our teams and players for representing the school this week.

Unfortunately, our Year 6 football team lost to Hymers and our Year 4 boys football team finished 3rd in a competition so missed out on the final.

Reading Corner

There are lots of free activities in all of the Hull Libraries over the May Half term. Use the link to book your places.
