A Message from Miss Pitts

It has been great to see the pupils dressed up for Children in Need today - there has been a real mix of Pudsey items, pyjamas and odd socks too. Thank you for your support of such a worthwhile day and charity.

From Monday 18th November 2024, I am delighted to let you know that we can offer places at Breakfast Club to Nursery pupils. This is for working parents/carers only and costs 50p per day. To book your child a place, please contact the school office on 01482 794122.

Earlier this week, a group of Year 4 boys took part in a Futsal competition. They won all of their group games, but unfortunately weren't successful in the final. They all represented the school well and I am proud of them for their efforts.

Reading Corner

This beautiful book by Britta Teckentrup centres around a swing set on a hill overlooking the sea. With sparse, lyrical prose and her trademark collage paintings, she captures the rhythms of life in an almost swing-like motion, moving from youth to old age and back again; passing through seasons, relationships and family life in all their uniqueness.

Themes of bravery, love and, most of all, hope are woven throughout this picture book. The author chooses to communicate the wishes throughout in a poetic and lyrical style using sparse but well-chosen vocabulary to add power to the unfolding story.

For Year 5 and 6 readers

Some really laugh out loud moments in an entertaining caper peppered with quirky characters but carrying a serious message about the environment.
