A Message from Miss Pitts

Earlier this week was Safer Internet Day and pupils took part in an assembly about being safe online, and heard a couple of stories designed to make them think about staying safe when online. They had plenty of time for discussion about their online lives, which is an inevitable part of our everyday lives in 2025.

Online safety is an ongoing conversation in school in response to issues when they arise. These are often caused by social media and messages; and we have identified that this is because pupils feeling braver to say things on a device that they would not say in person. Thank you for supporting these conversations at home.

I hope you have a love half term holiday. School re-opens on Monday 24th February 2025 at 8.40am.

Nut free school - an important reminder

We are a nut free school and have some pupils with severe nut allergies. Please do not use chocolate spread of any kind/brand in packed lunches. We can not monitor brands/types of chocolate spread so it must not be sent into school under any circumstances.

Thank you for helping to keep our pupils safe.

Reading Corner

World Book Day is on the horizon (Thursday 6th March) so we wanted to give you plenty of time to get your costumes ready. This year's text will be Heavy Metal Badger so we'd like children to come dressed as a band superstar - think rock star, rock band, guitar heroes! We can't wait to see what creative costumes you can come up with!
