A Message from Miss Pitts

This week, I have enjoyed looking at Writing books for pupils in each year group and seeing the progress they are making. Pupils talk enthusiastically about their Writing lessons and enjoy receiving proud cloud stickers from myself and other members of the Senior Leadership Team.

Each term we have a focus on a theme for personal development. This term's theme is all about using manners. We have created a poster which is displayed around school to remind the pupils of the manners we want to hear them using and are awarding lots of TEAM points to those who do.

Well done to our Year 5 and 6 Netball team who played 3 matches earlier this week and won one, drew one and lost one; despite having limited training before them.

Reading Corner

Last week, children from Year 4-Year 6 were visited by author Daniel Peak. He came to talk to us about being a writer, his favourite books and he even read from his brand-new book, Grimstink. This book is available in school for children to read!

Don't forget the book fair is here next week - see posters around school.

Times Table Fact of the Week

Our Times Table fact of the week is ...

$$12 \times 6 = 72 \quad 72 \div 6 = 12$$
